Philanthropic Events Sponsorship

Rhode Island Monthly has invested in an annual calendar module on RIMonthly.com to help make the website an even stronger resource for readers to discover what is going on in Rhode Island, particularly in identifying philanthropic events to help support the community.

Located on the high-traffic Things to Do page on the website, the calendar is a free resource for local organizations to promote their upcoming events to Rhode Island Monthly's engaged audience. The sponsor of this unique calendar will also be showcased in our monthly print ad promoting non-profit events.

Sponsorship benefits include:

- >> Category exclusivity.
- >> Logo placement on monthly 1/3 page or larger color ad highlighting non-profit events in monthly Rhode Island Monthly magazine.
- >> Logo on Rhode Island Monthly's Things to Do page, which has an average of 3,000+ pageviews per month, for one year.
- >> The sponsor will be mentioned as a sponsor in any and all social media or email promotion related to submitting philanthropic events to the online calendar.

Investment: $5,750

Additional Opportunity: Add a full page 4C ad in an issue of your choice during 2023 for an additional $3,000 (valued at $5,100).
