

EMPOWERMENT LEADERS

A COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION.

Rhode Island Monthly is once again partnering with the Rhode Island Foundation on our annual awards program that recognizes individuals who are leading efforts to improve our community by working to advance equity and social justice in our region.

The Christiana Carteaux Bannister Awards are named in honor of a local woman who was born into a Black and Indigenous family in 1819. She was a champion of social justice in Rhode Island and across the region, and a voice for elders of color.

The Bannister Awards will recognize some of the outstanding individuals who continue her legacy of working to address the underlying causes of inequity and social injustice in our region today. There will be a special feature story in our November 2024 issue to profile this year's honorees.

To compliment this feature story, we have created an opportunity for local companies to showcase your efforts in diversity, equity and inclusion with our attractive Empowerment Leaders profiles. It is important to demonstrate your company's commitment to these ideals. And it is also good for business.

Don't miss this opportunity to reach more than 141,000 educated, business and community leaders and potential new hires.

>> For information, contact Kieran Keating, associate publisher/sales, at 401-649-4888 or kkeating@rimonthly.com, or your Rhode Island Monthly marketing consultant.
