THE MAY ISSUE OF Rhode Island Monthly features our popular annual cover story, Top Doctors. This issue is traditionally one of our best-sellers. As an added benefit to this issue, we host a celebratory cocktail reception to honor the winners.

As one of our 2025 honorees, you have the opportunity to highlight your practice or specialty with a Top Doctor Profile in this issue! These four-color formatted profiles are available in a variety of sizes, as shown. Quarter page and larger profiles include a professionally taken photo of the physician, contact information and copy about the physician or specialty.

These profiles are available only to Top Doctors who have won an award for 2025. Enhance your award listing in the magazine with a profile that will be seen by our affluent readers.

Rhode Island Monthly at a glance:

- Educated (73% college degree or higher)
- Professional (81% hold professional/managerial/technical positions)
- Affluent (average household income $210,000)
- Primary reader age, 35+
