THE FACES OF ART AND INSPIRATION
Newport Art Museum

Nestled in the heart of Newport, Rhode Island, the Newport Art Museum has been a dynamic institution, controversially pushing the boundaries of artistic creativity since 1992. The Museum's diverse collection, ever-evolving exhibitions and thought-provoking programs stimulate discussions on contemporary critical issues.

The Newport Art Museum transcends conventional gallery settings, providing distinctive exhibitions that foster creativity and invite visitors to immerse themselves in two historically significant buildings, showcasing early Gilded Age and Beaux-Arts architectural styles. In addition to engaging public programming, the museum offers a wide range of art classes, artist-led workshops and spring and summer camps for all ages and skill levels.

The museum is also a versatile venue for rentals and special events throughout the year: From corporate conferences to weddings, the Newport Art Museum provides a unique and picturesque setting for these special and memorable occasions.

THE FACE OF PROVIDENCE'S NEWEST BOUTIQUE HOTEL
The Beatrice

Welcome to The Beatrice. We've been expecting you.

In October 2022, Owner Joseph B. Pastore, Jr., General Manager Jennifer Curtis, and Butler GM Robert D'Arcangelo, opened their Beatrice's first doors to the public, with the first boutique hotel opening in Providence in nearly a decade.

The much-anticipated grand opening of The Beatrice, a new 67-room boutique hotel located in the bustling historic district of downtown Providence, Rhode Island is now complete. The jewel in Pastore Prospective portfolio, The Beatrice is situated in the iconic 1887 Exchange Building. An homage to the Beatrice family tradition, Beatrice's Tenants, The Beatrice is designed with today's sophisticated traveler in mind. An upscale gathering place for locals (who wouldn't have it any other way), the hotel features the debut of the world-class Beatrix restaurant by speciality chef, and an exclusive private rooftop club for members and hotel guests.
