Know more. Live better.

MARCH 2026

With a strategic approach to branding your family owned business, you will instill a strong sense of trust with customers while positively impacting your sales. A special section, in the March issue of Rhode Island Monthly, will provide the opportunity to tell the story of your family-owned business and also include an article on succession planning for small businesses. Beautifully designed profiles can promote your business with information on your unique stories, awards/recognitions, products and services offered or anything you would like to highlight. Don't miss the opportunity to reach our 163,000+ affluent readers to share your success story while increasing market visibility and consumer trust. As an added benefit, each profile will be included on the RIMonthly.com website for one full year which attracts more than 246,000+ views per month.

» 79.8% of readers purchase products from ads seen in Rhode Island Monthly

HOW WE STARTED

M.R.T. has strong roots in the custom design and wholesale marketplace. As a downtown Providence Jeweler in the 1970s and '80s, Joe Audette developed international diamond contacts so direct that he was able to wholesale products to other Rhode Island jewelers. He then opened his own store in East Providence, Rhode Island. M.R.T. has strong roots in the custom design and wholesale marketplace.
