[SOUTH COUNTY]
Olympia Tea Room

Until the end of October, enjoy an elegant selection of more than a hundred wines at the Olympia Tea Room sidewalk cafe in Watch Hill. Tempt your palate with the award-winning cocktail list inside the century-old eatery while seated at a sleek mahogany booth savoring fine ingredients. Dedicated to a locally sourced menu, Olympia Tea Room offers both classic and inventive dishes that highlight seafood. To start, enjoy flaked haddock topped with spicy butter sauce accompanied by grilled French bread, or dine on sweet Italian sausage paired with broccolini and potatoes or the ale-battered fish and chips. For something simpler, enjoy a cheeseburger or grilled margherita pizza while taking in sunset views. Olympia Tea Room also offers weekly specials and house-made desserts.

WHAT TO EAT: Stick with entrees including the lime chipotle shrimp or roasted clams linguini, but if handhelds are more your thing, the lobster salad rolls pair well with whatever drink you're sipping on.

WHO TO BRING: Watch boats sail by or witness golden hour with the family after ordering your meal.

WHAT TO WEAR: Your usual summer attire; bring a sweater in case it gets chilly while dining outside.

THE DRINK SITUATION: Don't even get us started on the selections from the extensive wine list.

INSIDER'S TIP: If you're arriving via boat, the coordinates are 41°18.832'N, 71°51.488'W.

THE DETAILS: Open Mon. and Wed.-Fri. for dinner; Sat. and Sun. for lunch and dinner. 74 Bay St., Westerly, 348-8281, olympiatearoom.com. $$$
